HUMAN RIGHTS and their POLIT-ICAL GUARANTEES: Founded on the Moral and Intellectual Laws of our being, by E. P. Hurlbut, Judge of the Supreme Court, N. Y.; with Notes and an Appen dix by George Combe. New and enlarged edition. Cloth,

"This is the production of a strong mind, an honest Judge, and a man of great moral worth. Souring infinitely above the petty technicalities of legislation, he descries the in-herent, inalierable rights of humanity; and being most happy as a writer, it is easy to see why and how his work becomes possessed of uncommon merits. It might be called condensed truth. Our laws are faulty; he shows wherain. The inalienable rights of humanity are by no means all selaws. He shows what. He shows how to secure them " Indeed, no true Republican should deny himself the rich intellectual and moral feast he serves up '

TMPORTANT to the POOR. DIS-

FOR THE BENEFIT of the CITY of NEW-YORK !- We congraturate the public and especially the speople of the City of New York, upon the strival of the cubrated and skillful Romsopathic Physician, Dr. L. GELBARDT, of Poland. In the course of his voyage to the country, on board of the ship Ohio, he made some wonderful curse of Rheumatic and other convulsive diseases, among the passengers. Although an English Physician (in whom we have much confidence) has been employed in said ship, we do hereby reader our discorrect thanks, in the name of the passengers, to Dr. GEL BARDT, and recommend him as a great and wonderful physician, who will be of immense benefit to the people of the City of New-York.
